News Of Special Interest To The Residents Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

TIMES SCRIBE RECORDS NEWS OF EMMITSBURG

After a spirited campaign the St. Joseph's high school juniors, sophomores and freshmen elected class officers. Barbara Peters, former president of the Valley Science club, was elected president of the junior class. Mary Teresa Rosensteel was elected vice-president; Elizabeth Cool, secretary and Edward Houck, treasurer.

The sophomores selected the following officers: Jean Topper, president; Elizabeth McCullough, vice-president; Cecilia Wenshoff, secretary and Bernadette Arnold, treasurer.

The freshmen chose Sandra Hall for class president. The other officers are: Eugene Rosensteel, vice-president; Gertrude Cool, secretary and Dolores Miller, treasurer.

At the November meeting of the Circle Jeanne d'Arc Christmas activities were enthusiastically discussed. The club decided to pack individual Christmas boxes with candy, toys and clothing to send to the children of France. Small dolls were given to the girls to be dressed. The hymn "de Lourdes" closed the meeting.

Drive For Clothing
A drive for clothing conducted by St. Joseph's Catholic church during the past week, for the people of foreign countries was responded to generously by the people of the parish. The clothing was delivered to St. Vincent's rectory, DePaul street and will be packed and shipped this week to foreign war stricken areas.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Topper, and daughter, Shirley, spent Saturday in York.

William Winebrenner, Gettysburg road, is a patient at the Warner hospital. He is in a serious condition.

Miss Frances Rowe of Washington spent several days the past week at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Combs.

Personal Items
Mr. and Mrs. George H. Gillelan of Baltimore spent the past week at the home of Mrs. Gillelan's parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Stinson. Mr. Gillelan spent three days on a deer hunting expedition in Potter county.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bittle are spending some time in California visiting with Mr. Bittle's mother.

Clyde Eyer, O'Dale Keilholtz, James Adelsberger, Jack Stoner, Joseph Boyle and Raymond Baker, spent three days the past week deer hunting at the Black Paw Hunting-club near Greenstone, Pa.

NEW TYPE MIRROR — Sample of a new transparent mirror, based on a once highly secret wartime development, is examined by William H. Colbert, general manager of the Libby-Owens-Ford plant at Brackenridge, Pa.

Mrs. John Eyer spent several days recently in Baltimore visiting with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Winters.

The sacrament of baptism was administered Sunday at St. Joseph's Catholic church by Rev. Gerald Curran to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gunn. The baby was named Elaine Agnes. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ott, also had their son baptized on Sunday. It was given the name of Donald Eugene. Joshua T. Gillelan of Baltimore, spent the week-end at the home of his sister, Miss Ruth Gillelan.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Topper, of Gettysburg visited Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mrs. Stella Topper.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Troxell, West Main street, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at their home on Wednesday, November 27. A dinner was served on Thanksgiving Day in honor of their anniversary.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Felix Adams over the week-end were, Miss Louise Adams of Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harner and family and Mr. and Mrs. Overholzer, all of Philadelphia.

SANTA CLAUS TO COME TO EMMITSBURG

Santa Claus is coming to Emmitsburg.

That was the word passed along to the kiddies today by George Wilhide, general chairman of the Lions club committee sponsoring the Emmitsburg visit of the rotund saint.

Santa's entrance to the community will be in one of two ways—either by jeep or by sled—depending upon how the weatherman feels about sending along some snow to make Santa's visit in keeping with his usual abode at the North Pole.

When he arrives at the square in Emmitsburg sometime on December 24, just before taking off for his night's round of visits to homes everywhere, Santa is scheduled to distribute oranges, candy and a toy to every youngster. The merchants are going to help defray the expense to Santa of giving out the candy, toys and the like.

To Follow Celebration

The presentation, the Lions state, is going to be made under a huge community Christmas tree that will decorate center square.

First there will be a free movie for all of the youngsters and then a parade of youngsters will visit various sections of the town. The committee is busy at the moment securing a band to lead the big parade and at the end of the parade the band will lead the youngsters right up to the tree for the gift presentations.

And Santa won't forget the older folk who may need some help, the Lions say. There will be gift baskets of food and things to gladden the heart of some of the more unfortunate families of the community who need the help at the Christmas season. Some of Santa's helpers will quietly distribute the baskets December 24.

The trip to Emmitsburg will be the first for Santa in person since 1941. Since then war-time conditions have prevented his presence there for public affairs.

The Island of Bardados, in the West Indies, has an area of only 166 square miles and yet a population of 193,000.

Emmitsburg CHARTER NIGHT IS CONDUCTED BY LIONS CLUB

Charter Night was celebrated by the Emmitsburg Lions club Monday evening with a ladies' night dinner and dance at the Elias Lutheran parish house.

Organized November 24, 1929, the Emmitsburg Lions celebrated their birthday by having representatives from every other Lions club in the section including the Westminster club which was founded by the Emmitsburg club and the Frederick Lions, which organized the Emmitsburg group.

Deputy District Governor Alvie Rand of Frederick represented the Frederick club. Speakers at the dinner pointed out "the great debt" owed by the Emmitsburg Lions to the "grand Frederick club" for its help in "so many ways not only in establishing the Emmitsburg club but in aiding it over the past years."

The president and secretary of the Thurmont club, which was formed by Frederick on November 1, 1929, and officials of the Westminster club which was formed December 6, 1940, by the Emmitsburg group were present. Also present were representatives of the Mt. Airy and Union Bridge clubs which were sponsored by Westminster and representatives of the Walkersville Lions club.

Charles A. Harner, president of the Emmitsburg club, and Mrs. Harner were presented with an electric blanket in honor of their 31st wedding anniversary which fell on December 8. The presentation was made by George L. Wilhide.

Following the turkey dinner and meeting a dance was held to the music of an orchestra conducted by William Sterbinsky.

Lutheran Church Near Fund Goal

The Lutheran World Action goal for 1946 of Elias Lutheran church has almost been reached. The goal is $1,200. Since last Christmas up to December 1st, $1,198.60 has been given. The goal for 1947 will be $950.

The bazaar held Saturday evening was a high success. Approximately $335 was realized.

The Lutheran church parsonage has been painted with two coats of white paint. A new roof has also been put on. This completes a general program of repairs and painting of all exterior of the church property this year. The cost of the repairs will average $1,000.

DINNERS POPULAR

The turkey and country ham parties being held each Saturday evening at the Emmitsburg fire hall have proven extremely popular. Committee members said today. The parties will be held each Saturday from 8 to 10 until the first of the year for benefit of the fire company. The affairs are sponsored by the Lions club.

NEAR SCOUT QUOTA

Contributions to the Boy Scout drive being conducted by the Emmitsburg Lions club have nearly reached the quota of $300, George Wilhide, chairman, announced today. The drive is part of a Frederick county wide drive to raise money for the support of the Boy Scout organization within the county.

Firemen Fight Blaze In Chapel

The Emmitsburg fire company was called Friday night at 10:45 o'clock to extinguish a fire in the rear of the chapel at Mount St. Mary's college.

Firemen said today they could not determine the source of the fire which burned a hole "the size of a bushel basket" in the floor of the church and burned through the ceiling before the firemen were able to extinguish the flames.

Damage was established at "several hundred dollars" with the firemen paying tribute to the cooperation of the students of the college during the fire. The company was at the scene within five minutes after the call arrived and left about midnight after making a thorough check to determine that all sparks were extinguished.

THE EMMITSBURG LOCKER SYSTEM

CHARITY FAIR TO OPEN SATURDAY AT ST. JOSEPH'S

The annual Charity Fair of St. Joseph's college, Emmitsburg, will officially begin Christmas activities on the campus Saturday. Students, alumnae, and visitors from neighboring towns and cities are invited to participate in the day's festivities from 2 to 9 p. m.

Christmas color schemes will form a decorative background for the booths sponsored by the clubs and organizations of the college. Varies will be the dominant note expressed.

Stuffed animals will bring the world of Br'er Rabbit and the Three Little Kittens to the children. Works of handcraft, leather craft, and knitting including wallets, felt novelties, and utility cases will be offered.

Games will challenge those who seek adventure while others will find pleasure in a skillful game of darts. Homemade cake and candy will supplement turkey sandwiches. A musical note will climax the day's activities as the senior class offers their rendition of traditional Christmas carols.

In previous years the Charity Fair was sponsored by the Children of Mary Sodality for the purpose of aiding the needy in nearby districts. Now it has branched its endeavors to help the destitute of Europe.

Great Britain first laid claim to the West Indian island of Barbados in 1605, when an English ship landed there.

Couple Observes 53rd Anniversary

A party was held last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Nina Givens in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher L. Ohler, who observed their 53rd wedding anniversary. An enjoyable evening was spent playing games, and refreshments were served.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Beecher L. Ohler, Mrs. Nina Givens, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Harbaugh and son, Thomas Richard, Mr. and Mrs. George Ohler, sons, Melvin and Donald, all of Emmitsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ohler and daughter, Geneva, of Taneytown; Sterling Selby, New Windsor; Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Shadel and daughter, Ann, of Kingsdale, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. William Harbaugh, son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harbaugh, daughter, Betty Lee, and son, Billy, all of Cascade, Md.

Addlesberger To Start 36th Year

Emmitsburg's police force—Albert P. Addlesberger—will start on his 36th year as a deputy sheriff and constable Saturday when he is sworn in for the ninth time as a peace officer in Frederick county.

The ceremony will take place in the office of Sheriff Guy Anders who has appointed Addlesberger for another four-year term at the completion of 35 years of service as constable and deputy in Emmitsburg.

NEW OFFICERS FOR GLEE CLUB

Because of demands of their studies, Ken Dahlen, Ignatius Wadas, Pat Gilcooley, and Bob McDonald have resigned from their offices in the Mountain Glee club at Mt. St. Mary's college.

The resignations were tendered and accepted at a general meeting on December 5. New officers were elected at the same meeting. John Mahoney of Brooklyn, was made president while James Smith, Stephen Sweeney, and William Jackson succeeded Wadas, Gilcooley, and McDonald as treasurer, secretary, and librarian, respectively.

The first announcement of the organization under its new officers was a plan for a Yuletide program to include a Christmas service in the chapel on December 16 and caroling on the campus and throughout the neighboring towns and villages on the preceding evening. Visits to St. Joseph's, Hood, and Gettysburg colleges are included in the choral group's tour.

The chapel service includes the following: "O Come, O Come Emmanuel," soloist, Vincent Murphy; "Angels We Have Heard On High," Glee club; "The First Nowell," soloist, Francis Martin; "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," to be sung by all; "It Came Upon The Midnight Clear," soloist, Ken Dahlen; "Joy To The World," to be sung by all; "Adeste Fideles," soloist, Francis Donohue; "We Three Kings," soloists, Edwin Bradley, Fred Simon and Leo Fitzpatrick; "Silent Night," soloists, Doerner and Jackson; and "Lo! How A Rose E'er Blooming."

C AND P LISTS NEW OFFICIALS

Important organization changes were announced today by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone companies.

William J. McManus has been elected vice president (public relations); William H. Trapnell, vice president, (personnel relations), and Robert W. Michie, vice president (revenues).

John A. Remon, vice president, will assist the president on general operating and engineering matters while Robert C. McCann, vice president, will assume the duties of vice president in charge of current operations.

"In Dulcis Jubilo," and "O! Holy Night," as organ solos.

erations.

Mr. McManus, who succeeds H. R. Maddox recently elected president effective January 1, began his telephone career in 1921 as a clerk for the company. After being division chief clerk, general chief clerk, and general commercial supervisor, he was made general commercial manager in July, 1945.

Mr. Trapnell, who succeeds Mr. McCann, entered the telephone business in 1927 as a traffic student in the C. and P. of Baltimore. He was appointed general traffic supervisor for the Virginia company in 1936. In 1939 he moved up to general traffic manager of that company and in January 1945, became general traffic manager of the C. and P. in Washington.

Mr. Michie came into the C. and P. organization at Washington in 1927 as a statistical clerk and was made chief accountant of the Washington company in 1937. In the following year he went to Virginia as auditor, returning to Washington in March, 1946, as assistant vice president of the four companies.

FIVE KILLED IN COLLISION OF CAR, OIL TRUCK

Downtown, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—A car and an oil truck collided head-on Wed. night in one of the worst accidents in this area in many years killing five persons and hospitalizing four others.

Three of those killed were thrown clear of the wreckage and their bodies strewn in a nearby field. The others died as they were being taken to Chester county hospital.

Deputy Coroner Fred Manship said the two vehicles collided on a curve about a mile south of Downingtown on a main highway. The truck did not catch fire, he reported.

Three of the dead were identified as passengers in a car carrying six youths, said survivor James Ayers, 25, Downingtown. They were Donald Jamison, 23, the driver; Vincent Zinni, 19, both of Downingtown, and Fred Pizzi, 21, West Chester.

Manship said the truck driver, also killed, was James Paul Ambler. He added that Paul apparently had picked up Carmen J. Marino, 23, Downingtown, the fifth person killed, and his wife.

Mrs. Marino was one of three in critical condition. Ayers escaped with only lesser hurts.

Manship said the truck was loaded with 4,300 gallons of oil and that the cargo spilled into a field and flowed into the adjacent Brandywine creek after the crash upset the trailer and split several seams in the tank.

Ayers told Manship the careening truck-trailer tore off a telephone pole after colliding with the car.

Aged Lithographer Plans Calm Death

Collingswood, N. J., Dec. 13 (AP)—Charles Barcus, a 76-year-old lithographer, was a considerate man and a finished craftsman.

He ended his life with his usual consideration for others and as a master craftsman, Deputy Coroner Earl Holl reported.

Before taking his life in a self-constructed gas chamber Wednes., Holl said, Barcus wrote notes to his undertaker, banker, housekeeper, the policeman in his neighborhood and left a $5 note for the person "who will have the job of going to the morgue with me."

Then, Holl continued, to avoid a possible accident which might injure others, he placed signs on the door of his garage-workshop saying "do not smoke-gas."

Holl related that he then walked into the garage, turned on the gas, seated himself in his favorite rocking chair and died a planned death.

He said Barcus had been in ill health for several years.

The first official census of the Netherlands East Indies, in 1905, showed a population of 38,000,000. In 1940, it was 70,000,000.

Says Allies Face 'Spiritual Vacuum'

Buck Hill Falls, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—The Allied reconstruction program is faced with "a moral and spiritual vacuum" among German youth created by the collapse of their Nazi ideals, the Methodist church was told by Dr. Ralph E. Diffendorfer, foreign executive secretary of the church.

"German youth today apparently is without hope and hope is a spiritual quality," Dr. Diffendorfer told the church's Board of Missions and Church Extension Wednesday.

Germany's "future economy can be objectively controlled. Her finances can be regulated. Her army and navy can be obliterated, by force if necessary," he said, adding:

"But moral and spiritual outlook is a creation from within and involves educational and social procedures not so easily manipulated."

In another address, Dr. James K. Mathews, associate secretary for India reported that country will be "most interesting for the world to watch in the coming generation."

INSANITY PLEA IN ENGLE CASE

Bryan, Ohio, Dec. 13 (AP)—The defense Thurs. called additional witnesses in an attempt to establish that laughing James R. Engle, 21, on trial for the murder of Miss Emily Abernathy, 30, was insane when he beat, strangled and stabbed her in the Bryan public library basement September 19.

The balding, gaunited, six-foot defendant, who chewed gum—sometimes audibly—during the first three days of his trial, has pleaded innocent by reason of insanity to a two-count charge—premeditated murder and murder while attempting to perpetrate rape. He laughed or smiled at the testimony of defense witnesses.

The Navy dischargee already has told the three-judge court that an "urge to kill" caused him to seize and slay the woman.

Jurist Attacks Divorce System

Scranton, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—A Scranton jurist declares that "Pennsylvania is taking its place with the courts in our western states where incompatibility, mental cruelty and other flimsy excuses for divorce have caused our divorce situation to become a national scandal."

Speaking from the bench Wednesday, Lackawanna County Judge T. Linus Hoban attacked recent rulings by the state Superior Court which he said are leading to "easy divorce."

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—Loaded with passengers bound for central-city Christmas shopping, a trolley collided with a shifting freight train in South Philadelphia Wednesday night injuring 45 persons, none seriously.

PICKETS BEAT PHOTOGRAPHER; PROTEST FILED

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Philadelphia Press Photographers association today formally protested what they said was "the unnecessary rowdiness" of Philadelphia Record employees "in attacking Frank Johnston, a press photographer."

The association, in a telegram addressed to J. David Stern, publisher of the Record, declared Johnston, a photographer for the Philadelphia Inquirer, was beaten while "photographing a legitimate news event."

"We are turning this matter over to our attorneys for appropriate action for protection of news photographers on legitimate assignments," said the telegram.

Johnston said his camera was knocked from his hand and his eye blackened when he attempted

WORSE THAN 'INFERNO'

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—H. Birchard Taylor, vice president of the Cramp Shipbuilding Co., reports the Philadelphia State hospital at Byberry is worse "than Dante's inferno." He declared the institution must have $50,000,000 for repairs and improvements to rid itself of "noises and smells."

to take pictures of an altercation at the loading platform of the newspaper last night.

Two pickets from the CIO-American Newspaper guild, on strike for increased wages at the Record and Camden Courier-Post said they were beaten, police reported.

Police estimated 650 pickets, including 150 from the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers union (CIO) were outside the loading platform as the Record's first edition was prepared for delivery. Trucks manned by members of the AFL-Teamsters left with papers after a slight delay.

No arrests were reported.

The papers have been published by executives since the strike began November 7.

SMITH SIGNED TO COACH YANKS

Boston, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Boston Yanks of the National football league Thursday produced Maurice (Clipper) Smith as their 1947 head coach.

Smith, who recently waived the last four of a five-years contract at the University of San Francisco, agreed to succeed Herb Kopf here on a short term basis.

He told Yank officials he stepped out of San Francisco about a week ago because he doubted he could produce winning teams there under existing conditions. In his new contract he reserved the right to quit if unable to gain immediate success in professional ranks.

One of Notre Dame's earliest "watch charm" guards under the late Knute Rockne, Smith started his college coaching career at Santa Clara. He gained his greatest successes at Villanova from 1936-42 and during those years was reputed to have rejected three offers from Boston college and one from Holy

Accidental Bullet Wound Proves Fatal

Johnstown, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Albert G. Bergman, 70, retired chief of plant police for the Bethlehem Steel Co., died in Memorial hospital Wednesday from an accidental bullet wound suffered while cleaning a pistol in the basement of his home.

The shot struck Bergman in the left side of the chest near the heart. He lived only about an hour. Deputy Coroner Andrew Stropko said the shooting was an accident.

Bergman retired October 1, after having worked for Bethlehem Steel for 52 years. He had been chief of plant police since 1924.

The Best Way to Boss a Blizzard

This Snow Plow has a blade made in three sizes, with the cutting edge bolted in place and made reversible. The frame is very stoutly welded from angle irons, to fit each make of tractor. The mechanism that ordinarily lifts plows and cultivators is used to lift or lower the Snow Plow.

This Dingley Plow is a close relative of the angle-dozer and snow plow used as an attachment on the Dingley Hydraulic Loader, but it is an independent piece of equipment; you can apply it without having a loader. Watch these advertisements for full information about Dingley Loaders and their attachments. Get Catalog 84.

Is to shove it around with the new Dingley Snow Plow, attached to your tractor.

The steel blade can be set at any angle up to 30 degrees, sloping toward either side of the road. Adjustable shoes at each end, a spring-loaded clamp behind the pivot, and arms operated by the mechanical lift on the tractor give complete and easy control of the plow. Simple, sturdy, and sensible, this Snow Plow lets you meet winter with a smile.

See it and buy it, either from stock or by entering your order. This practical Snow Plow is made in three sizes. They fit Minneapolis-Moline Z and R tractors, International Harvester M, H, A and B models, John Deere A, B and H, and Massey-Harris 101 Senior and Junior Models, also 81.

SEN. FULBRIGHT WANTS TRUMAN TO QUIT JOB

By EDWIN B. HAARINSON

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—Senator J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) credited President Truman today with a "very good job" in handling the coal strike crisis but clung to his recommendation that the Chief Executive resign in favor of a Republican.

Despite a barrage of criticism from both fellow Democrats and Republicans, the 41-year-old lawmaker said he still is convinced that Mr. Truman should step down "for the good of the country and for the good of his party."

Fulbright, former Oxford scholar and university president, first advanced his proposal the day after the November 5 election in which the Republicans swept to control of Congress.

No Reflections

Mr. Truman himself brushed aside any comment, but the White House made it clear the President had no intention of quitting.

"My suggestion is not a reflection on anyone's integrity, patriotism, or anything else," the senator told a reporter today. "It would merely correct an obvious defect in our present system which has resulted when the President is a member of one party and the majority of Congress another."

As for Mr. Truman's role in the coal crisis, Fulbright declared:

"I think President Truman did a very good job in convincing John L. Lewis that he meant business and was not going to give in. I certainly think that was well handled."

Seek Hearing On Deshon Hospital

Pittsburgh, Dec. 13 (AP)—The federal government will seek a hearing in federal district court here soon to determine if the state of Pennsylvania is obligated to sell the Deshon General hospital near Butler, for $2,512,297.

The action was planned by Elliot W. Finkel, assistant U. S. attorney, after James H. Duff, state's attorney general and governor-elect, filed an answer yesterday to the federal government's condemnation proceedings.

The state contended former Governor Arthur H. James and other state officials who agreed in 1942 to sell the property do not now possess the authority to carry out the pact. Duff also declared the federal government gave up all title to the hospital in a written notice June 30, 1946. Governor Edward Martin has contended the hospital property is worth about $4,600,000.

Brewery Worker Accused Of Arson

Pittsburgh, Dec. 13 (AP)—A north-side brewery worker was charged with arson in connection with the firing of a beer distributor's truck and three other men were charged with unlawful possession of a fire bomb Wednesday night.

J. R. McLaughlin, 39, was charged with arson by state police before Magistrate Frank Zapalla. Three men arrested by Etna police after bombs were found in their car were Clifford Smith, 29, Richard Campbell, 25, and Harry Murphy, 30. They told Justice of the Peace James Adair they were former brewery workers.

The arrests were the latest development in the jurisdictional dispute between the AFL-Teamsters union and the CIO-Brewery Workers, both of whom claim to represent a majority of brewery bottling house employees.

The beer distributor's truck was set on fire on route 19 Tuesday night near Zelenople.

See Danger Of New Strike Series

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—Industry leaders declared today the CIO's fresh insistence that wages can be raised without boosting prices may lead to "another series of serious strikes."

They recalled the CIO had employed the same argument in pressing its initial postwar wage demands in the steel, automobile and other heavy industries last spring but that prices had gone up following the wage increases.

Truck Of Dynamite And Caps Explodes

Somerset, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Residents of Somerset were startled but no one was hurt when a three-quarter ton truck, loaded with dynamite and detonating caps, exploded Wednesday night during a fire in an abandoned railroad station in the north end of town.

The building, once the Somerset station of the Pittsburgh, Westmoreland and Somerset railroad, had been used recently to house trucks used in a nearby mining operation.

A group of workers saw the building afire, fled to safety and notified firemen.

Before the firemen arrived, the truckload of dynamite let go, shattering windows in a nearby service station and shaking buildings in a tourist camp a quarter mile away. The building was badly damaged, one truck destroyed and another partially wrecked. Cause of the fire was not determined.

5 LONG TERM CONVICTS ON HUNGER STRIKE

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—A hunger strike by five long-term convicts, four of whom engineered a tunnel escape plot 20 months ago, was disclosed Thursday by Warden Cornelius J. Burke at Pennsylvania's Eastern penitentiary.

Michael F. (Mickey) Quinn, who eluded police for months after participating in a Washington bank robbery a year ago, is a member of the group which for a week has returned full meal trays.

Burke said the men told him they are protesting against being kept in the segregation section of cell block No. 1.

In addition to Quinn, he identified the participants as Michael Webb, Robert McKnight, James Van Sant and James Simister. It is the second hunger strike for this group since being returned to prison following the tunnel break April 3, 1945.

"The men feel that they should be permitted more privileges," said Burke. "We at the prison feel otherwise. We are not going to force them to eat. They are being served three meals a day, the same as anyone else. When they get hungry they'll eat."

Although confined in the segregation section, the warden said the prisoners are accorded some privileges including exercise in the prison yard and permission to listen to radio broadcasts.

Van Sant, Webb, McKnight and Simister took part in a hunger strike in October, 1945, which lasted 43 days.

HOLD HARD WORK CAN CURE US ILLS

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—The House committee on postwar economic policy and planning added its voice Thursday to the Congressional clamor for new labor legislation.

In its final report, the 18-member group composed of both Democrats and Republicans called for "constructive—not punitive" laws to eliminate labor-management disputes and at the same time cautioned against a depression psychology.

"There is nothing wrong with the country that hard work and resultant production will not cure," the committee commented. "Considering everything, there is no necessity for either a depression or recession."

"Loose talk of depression and business recession is unjustified and serves no good purpose," the report said. It added:

"A start has been made toward the goal of sustained high employment. The task ahead is to develop economic conditions which will encourage stability of productive employment at a high level."

Duff Will Name His Cabinet Soon

Harrisburg, Dec. 13 (P)—Governor-elect James H. Duff is planning a happy new year for at least fifteen prominent Pennsylvania citizens. He will name his new cabinet shortly after the first of the year.

Duff said yesterday that "there will be no pronouncement on the cabinet until all members are picked" and added "that will not take place until after New Year's."

BRIDGE TO PARADISE

By Kathleen Rollins

Chapter 20
"My goodness," Penelope exclaimed, "the way girls are always wanting to run away from home these days."

She made a slucking sound with her tongue. "Can't you find enough to keep you busy here? Corrine can, I'm sure."

"You have to admit there's nothing here for me," Madelyn argued.

"In my day, girls were content to get married and settle down," Penelope said, resuming her cutting.

"Well, I'm not ready to settle down until I've had a little fun."

David went home to shave and shower and dress for the political rally which was to be held in the Auditorium that night.

When Penelope came home from a shopping tour she found him playing on the floor with young Roy. She scolded him for rolling around with his good clothes on, but he only grinned up at her and demanded to know what the heck she thought good clothes meant to him.

He jumped up immediately and grabbed her in his arms and waltzed her around to a tune he hummed, then held her close and kissed her face all over with tenderness he had not shown since his boyhood.

Penelope caught his face between her palms and looked him squarely in the eye. "What is it, son?" she asked and a mist came over her eyes.

"What's what?" he parried, though he knew it was useless to attempt to evade her.

"What's come over you? What's happened to you that I don't know about?"

He pinched her cheek, but he could not hide his deep, serious eyes when he answered. "There are some things a fellow just doesn't talk about. Aren't I being good?" he went on in a jesting tone.

"Aren't I doing better than I did?" "That's just it," she laughed, "you're being too sweet to me lately."

Mrs. Rodney called out that dinner was on the table just then, and afterwards, before he went to the meeting, David took a letter from Paul Granger out of his pocket and read it again:

Dear David: I have thought a lot about the lake down there and the tales you told about it, and have worked up an engineer's curiosity to find out what is at the bottom of that "Old Devil Lake." I have a friend who has a small glass-bottom boat, and if you'll give me an invitation for around Thanksgiving, when I will have a few days free, I'll come down the river in the boat and we'll go exploring.

By the way, I hope there is no particular young swain down there who will seriously object to my dating Corrine Pratt for a show or two while I'm there. I have written and asked her for the privilege. Let me hear from you.

Yours, Paul.
David meditated upon the frank, youthful note, and upon the memory of Paul's clear, eager eyes. Suddenly he felt old and experienced and disillusioned. It was not in him to be jealous of Paul and Corrine.

There was only numbness and defeat in his heart. He had the hazy thought that Paul would be a suitable match for Corrine, and the son of a railroad magnate would be acceptable to her parents.

He took a pen and wrote rapidly in a bold, even hand, giving Paul a cordial invitation to come down, explaining the lack of accommodations in the town, finally inviting him to bunk in the tent in Progress town. He thought there would be no duels if he took Corrine out, none that he could not win at least, he explained, for he was thinking of Ross Headley. He wrote at length about Devil Lake and his hopes for developing his property, of his thoughts of making the new subdivision Paradise Park.

When he read the letter over, he wondered at its enthusiastic trend, but by the time he sealed and stamped it and was ready to go out, he was surprised to find himself restored to light-hearted eagerness.

At the political meeting he delivered his speech to a hall packed to capacity. A zestful speech, full of punch, setting forth his ideals tersely and emphatically. He caught his main opponent up on points which he left vague, and sometimes obscure, after his flowery appeal, for David thought only of Ross as an opponent. He was carrying Mr. Crockett along as best he could, and was sympathetic with Mr. Snodgrass' timid attempts to speak in public. He had no fear whatever of Thomas McKenzie.

He talked with Nella afterwards. She chuckled and said, "It wouldn't surprise me if Snodgrass took Ross' warm place in the city commission after they went to the trouble of running him in to split the vote."

"If Crockett is out—and I expect he is I hope Snodgrass wins. He has made some good points. He just can't talk," he said.

"Well, I hope he does," Nella answered, and a dreamy light came into her green eyes.

David left her and went on to his car. He wondered again why Nella wanted Ross defeated, but forgot all about it as he rode to his tent.

Headlights reflected in his little mirror and presently a car pulled alongside him. Jules Crockett waved to him to stop. Madelyn was at the wheel, and by the dim light on the dashboard he saw she was crying.

"David, I'm not feeling so good,"

TWO ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLING $15,000 FUND

Clarion, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Max E. Hosea and Charles A. Lampel, officials of the New Bethlehem Community Telephone company, were free under $4,000 bond today, awaiting a hearing December 31 before Justice of the Peace James Arner on charges of embezzling $15,000 from their company.

Warrants were issued on an information filed by District Attorney William P. Geary on complaint of Ralph Eccles of Rimersburg, president of the telephone company.

Geary said Hosea and Lampel came to New Bethlehem from Indianapolis a few months ago and became controlling stockholders of the corporation by buying stock held by Henry Drohn of New Bethlehem, Pa., for $38,000, of which $8,000 was paid.

At a stockholders' meeting last August 15, Hosea was elected vice president of the company and Lampel secretary-treasurer.

On the same day, Geary said, the Mr. Crockett said, "I wish you'd come over to the house."

Urges Legalization Of Horserace Betting

Harrisburg, Dec. 13 (AP)—Legalization of horse racing and licensing of pari-mutuel betting were suggested today by Rep. Hiram G. Andrews of Cambria county today as "one source of revenue that has not been touched" in Pennsylvania.

Andrews, candidate for reelection as the Democratic party's leader in the state House of Representatives, said the suggestion was his own and "in no sense a party position."

He made the comment in connection with a statement by governor-elect James H. Duff that the 1947 legislature faced the problem of providing "a large increase in taxes" if the things the public seems to want are to be done.

"We tolerate the races but let the people get out of the state to bet," declared Andrews, who de-two officers signed and cashed two company checks for $7,500 each at the First National Bank at New Bethlehem.

Geary said Hosea and Lampel at another stockholders' meeting October 14, said they had loaned themselves the $15,000 from the company's funds and that the loan was secured by notes they had issued to the corporation payable at the Citizens' State Bank in New Castle, Indiana.

Generous Response To Legion Appeal

The Toy committee of Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, Littlestown, reported a generous response from the residents of Littlestown in their appeal for old toys, at a meeting of the post Thursday evening. The committee and other Legionnaires will begin the repair of the toys Tuesday evening. Old toys will be collected until Saturday night. They may be left at Renner Brothers' hardware, Zerfing's hardware, or Kerchner's grocery. The Toy committee consists of Harry O. Harner, chairman; Kerchner, Lewis Fox, and Mark Frazer. The toys will be distributed to needy children at Christmas.

The annual distribution of turkeys will take place Saturday evening at 8 p. m. at Zerfing's Hardware store. Members are asked to turn in all coupons before that time, to any member of the committee or Mr. Krichen at Zerfing's.

Roy A. Harbaugh, Warren C. Harner and Roger I. Collins were elected to membership. The post acknowledged with thanks a donation to the building fund of $50 from the Ladies' Auxiliary. A contribution was voted to the Elizabeth Kenny foundation to fight infantile paralysis.

LEADING EVENTS IN LITTLESTOWN TOLD IN BRIEF

A complete account of the following stories, as well as others, appeared in The Gettysburg Times, Monday to Thursday. A few of the week's highlights are:

Santa Claus will pay his annual visit to Littlestown to treat the children of the town and vicinity, under the sponsorship of the Chamber of Commerce, on Tuesday, December 24, at 2:30 p. m. The Fraternal Order of Eagles, which will furnish the fruit and candy for the treat, is planning on distributing 1,200 packages. A short program is planned before the distribution, including music by the Littlestown high school band. Arrangements were made at a joint meeting Monday evening of representatives of the Chamber of Commerce and the Fraternal Order of Eagles. The commerce body is also sponsoring the erection of holiday lights in the business district this year.

The last Union Vesper service until January 19 was held Sunday evening in St. John's Lutheran church. The annual preaching mission sponsored by the Littlestown Ministerium was announced for the week of January 12 to January 17. Rev. C. B. Rebert, secretary of the ministerial body, completed 46 years in the ministry Sunday, it was announced at the union service.

The Girl Scouts of the town held rehearsal Wednesday evening for their parts in the program at the meeting of the Women's Community club next Wednesday evening in the P. O. S. of A. Hall.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion, held its annual Christmas party Tuesday evening in the post home. A public card party was announced for January 14, in St. Aloysius' Hall.

Firemen Answer Call
Approximately $100 damage was done by fire at the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry company

Wednesday evening. The Alpha Fire company responded shortly after 7 p. m. The roof of the cupola where iron is melted before being poured for molding was burned. Overheating in the cupola set the wooden roof on fire.

Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen, professor of practical theology at the Lutheran Theological seminary, Gettysburg, spoke at the meeting of the Rotary club Tuesday evening. He told of some of his experiences and observations on a recent trip to Europe. The Rotarians are planning Ladies' Night and a Christmas party at next Tuesday's meeting.

The Ladies' Aid society of Redeemer's Reformed church held its annual Christmas party Tuesday evening in the social hall. An oyster supper was held, and gifts were exchanged. A committee to nominate officers for 1947 was named by the president, Mrs. Charles Hofe, as follows: Mrs. S. W. Beck, Mrs. Harry M. Badders, and Miss Lillian Demmitt. The next meeting will be held January 13.

The annual banquet of the employees of the Hardware and Foundry company was held Wednesday evening in St. John's social hall. The company presented each employee with a bonus check. James Fager was toastmaster, and Luther D. Snyder presented the gifts. The committee in charge consisted of James Fager, chairman; Dennis Hoff, Charles Kump, James Slick and Roger Long. The foundry was established by Luther, Noah, and Emory Snyder, brothers, 30 years ago. Dewey Henry and Philip Weaver have worked at the plant 25 years. A small blaze occurred at the foundry during the banquet, but was quickly extinguished by the fire company, and did not spoil the festivities. However, employees recalled that three years previously a $40,000 fire destroyed the machine shop. The committee appointed to arrange for next year's banquet was named, as follows: Reid Eppelman, chairman; Elmer Wherley, Frank Shuff, Roger Orndorff, and Luther Hankey.

Kenneth Sell, a student at Ursinus college, spent the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sell.

Mrs. Howard J. Spalding sent the past week with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin J. Graeber, Cleveland, O.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Stormes and two daughters have returned home after spending a week with the former's parents in Linton, Ind. Enroute they visited Lewis Motter, Hampton, O.

GETTYSBURG IS OFFERED UNIT IN NEW GUARD

Gettysburg is being offered a mechanized cavalry troop in the re-activated Pennsylvania National Guard, Col. W. W. Brame, member of the 28th Division staff at Harrisburg, told Capt. Arthur C. Brame, commander of the county troop of the present Pennsylvania State Guard, on a visit to Gettysburg Thursday.

In the re-activation of the National Guard which is now taking place throughout the state, the four troops of the 104th Cavalry Squadron will be established at Carlisle, Tyrone, Gettysburg and Harrisburg under present plans, Colonel Brame said.

There will be a headquarters and service troop in addition to a line troop at Harrisburg and each of the three other points will have a single troop. These four line troops will take the place of 24 troops which were distributed over the state under the prewar organization of the National Guard.

Many towns larger than Gettysburg sought troop assignments but this community was selected, Colonel Brame said, "because of the excellent performance record of the State Guard unit here and because of the historic associations with Gettysburg."

Colonel Brame was accompanied here Thursday by Col. A. H. Stackpole, former commander of the 104th Cavalry Squadron.

B AND P WOMEN STAGE ANNUAL XMAS DINNER

Seventy members and guests attended the annual Christmas dinner of the Business and Professional Women's club Thursday evening at the YWCA. A turkey dinner was served by the Annie Danner club.

Mrs. Guyon Buehler was toastmistress for the program following the dinner. Miss Sara Jane Maust was song leader assisted by Misses Roberta Bittinger and Margaret Howard. Miss Freda Troxell was accompanist.

Music And Fun
Miss Althea Diehl read a Christmas poem and Miss Jane Strickhouser, accompanied by Miss Jeanne Spangler at the piano, sang "Canticque de Noel."

100 REBEKAHS AT XMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Mary Gettys Rebekah lodge was held Thursday evening with approximately 100 persons present.

The following program was preceded by the group singing of Christmas carols:

Recitations by Floranna Fox, Paul Evans, Tommy Evans, Gary Wentz, Linda Hay, Dorothy Krumrine, Linda Fox, Shirley Fox, Bobby Weikert and Sidney Weikert; a recitation with a song, Virginia Fox; the following musical numbers: electric guitar solo, Daryl Thomas; piano trio, Joan, Ruth and Jean Hartzell; trumpet solo, Kenneth Deardorff with piano accompaniment by his sister, Joanne Deardorff; piano solo, Joyce Mehring; flute solo, Mary Evans with piano accompaniment by Helen Myers; piano solo, Nancy Shields; vocal solo, "Away in a Manger," Barbara K. Smith; trombone solo, Frederic Oylar; with piano accompaniment by Miss Alice Snyder; vocal solos by Delores Kapp and Yvonne Porry; piano duet, Mrs. Naomi Schwartz and Miss Helen Myers. Group singing of "Silent Night" concluded the program.

Gifts were exchanged. Decorations consisted of evergreens, two lighted Christmas trees and cut flowers. Refreshments were in charge of Mrs. Mervin Sanders, Mrs. Robert Fox, Mrs. Wilmer Hartman, Mrs. Kenneth Thomas and Mrs. Ruth Hofe. Mrs. Arlene Krumrine, Mrs. Naomi Schwartz, Mrs. S. E. Kapp and Miss Viola Sachs arranged the program.

CAR RECOVERED
A blue Ford sedan, 1946 model, owned by Charles Roller, Hanover, was recovered Thursday at 1:15 p. m. by state police of the Gettysburg detachment, an hour and 45 minutes after it was driven north out of Hanover by the thief.

Discovered a mile and a half west of York Springs on Route 94, the vehicle was out of gas, borough police reported.

Cute Sayings

The most original and amusing sayings come from youngsters, invariably from those little takers of pre-school age.

During recent days the following took place in Gettysburg: A cute little girl, not quite certain as to the true status of Santa Claus picked up the telephone receiver and when the operator inquired: "Number please" she retorted:

"Please give me Santa Claus' telephone number!"

Another little pudgy fellow submitting to an examination by a physician lay quietly in his bed. The doctor applied a stethoscope to his chest. The little fellow grinned and inquired:

"There isn't anything loose in there, is there?"

And a third, propped in a dentist's chair, had novocain injected in his gum. As the drug took effect the little boy asked:

"When will that defrost?"

COLLEGE ASKS $500,000 FOR NEW BUILDINGS

Gettysburg college's campaign to raise a minimum of $500,000 for the expansion of building facilities, swung into full stride this week. Ten thousand illustrated brochures have been printed for distribution.

Plans call for the raising of funds for the erection of a new chapel, a girls' gymnasium, a new dormitory for women and modern infirmary. In addition, it is planned to modernize the Eddie Plank memorial gymnasium for men.

Three of the proposed new buildings will be erected on the section of the campus adjacent to Stevens and Huber halls. The girls' dormitory will be constructed at the northwest corner of this block, fronting on West Lincoln avenue. The gymnasium will be located between this building and Huber hall, also facing West Lincoln avenue.

The third building, the new chapel, will be erected at the southwest corner of the block, opposite Weidensall hall and on the north side of the walk which connects Huber hall with Washington street. The infirmary will be erected on the (Please Turn to Page 6)

Friday, The 13th Lucky For Youth

Today was a lucky "Friday the 13th" for Mrs. Helen Price, 100 Baltimore street. The terminal leave of her son, Sgt. William Price, ended today, and he was a civilian once more. His discharge from the service became effective today.

Sergeant Price spent two years in the service, one of them overseas. He returned recently from Korea, and received his terminal leave from Fort Dix, N. J., 12 days ago. A brother lost his life in the service.

GETS COMMITTEE POST

Assemblyman Francis Worley, Adams county's representative in the lower house at Harrisburg, has been appointed to membership on the Housecommittee on Committee Rooms in the first announcement of new assignments by Speaker-nominee Franklin H. Lichtenwalter at Harrisburg today.

FOUR CHAIRMEN FOR SCOUT DRIVE ARE ANNOUNCED

Appointment of four Upper Community chairmen was announced today by N. B. Schnurman, district chairman for the drive to raise $100,000 toward the purchase and development of a new Boy Scout camp for the York-Adams area.

The chairmen include John R. Fidler, Biglerville; W. R. Delp, Idaville; Stuart Sites, Fairfield and Henry Burkhardt, Orrtanna.

Additional chairmen are being secured for the other county communities. Mr. Schnurman said today with the organization for the fund raising drive to be completed by January 1, when the campaign will begin.

Quota Not Announced
No quota has been announced by York-Adams officials for the territory including the Black Walnut Boy Scout district and the Round Hill district, over which Mr. Schnurman is general chairman.

"We have met with great enthusiasm everywhere we have been so far in setting up the committees for this fund-raising drive," Mr. Schnurman said in announcing the community chairmen. "Most people seem to realize the value of the scouting movement in the prevention of juvenile delinquency which seems to be on the increase across the nation. With this new memorial camp Adams and York counties will be able to offer facilities for camping such as were never before available for scouting in this area. The new camp will be large enough to take care of the needs of the scouts for some time to come. It will be a memorial to those scouts who died in World War II from this area."

The new campsite is near Dillsburg.

News Collected At Random

"I Speak For Thaddeus Stevens" is the title of Elsie Singmaster's new book which will be published next spring by the Houghton Mifflin Company, of Boston.

As one of the nation's foremost authors, Mrs. Lewars (who writes under the pen name of Elsie Singmaster, her maiden name) has prepared an interesting volume on the life of the Vermontor who rose to prominence in the legal profession; lived and practiced law in Gettysburg and Lancaster, founded the public school system of Pennsylvania; became a Congressman and was one of Lincoln's staunchest supporters and defenders.

Much of this research for Part I of this volume which is called "Gettysburg" was done in the files of early newspapers owned by The Gettysburg Times.

That Mrs. Lewars' new book will be well received goes without saying.

For forty years she has been writing short stories, novels and other pieces. They have appeared in the Atlantic Monthly, Century, Scribner's, Harper's, Pictorial Review, The Saturday Evening Post and other top-ranking publications since 1905.

15 Killed, 50 Hurt When 3 Pennsy Trains Crash

Mansfield, O., Dec. 13 (AP)—An official of the Pennsylvania railroad estimated today that at least 15 persons were killed and 50 injured when the railroad's "Golden Triangle" passenger train plowed into the wreckage of two freight trains early this morning.

The rail official, who declined to be identified by name, told newsmen at the wreck scene he felt that was a "conservative estimate" after looking over the wreckage left by the pileup which occurred about 2:45 a. m. (EST), near Coulter, 12 miles southeast of here.

WILL EXHIBIT COUNTY STEERS AT FARM SHOW

The Adams County 4-H Baby Beef club participated in the southeast district show and sale at Lancaster earlier this week. Ten boys from the county exhibited steers, which had been taken Tuesday morning to the J. J. Hamme farm near Abbottstown for a county roundup. Four were selected by C. A. Burge, State College animal husbandry specialist, to be held over for the State Farm Show in January. They were steers owned by Kenneth Appler, Gettysburg R. 5; Thomas Murren, Hanover R. 4; Kenneth Walton, Hanover R. 4; and Donald Walton, Hanover R. 4.

Other club members took their steers to Lancaster where the Adams county stock and stock from other counties was inspected and steers not properly finished or fattened were culled. No steers were sifted from among the Adams county entries.

County Exhibits
On Wednesday approximately 30 steers were shown of both Hereford and Aberdeen-Angus breeds. Adams county boys who exhibited were: Hereford heavyweights, Kenneth Biesecker, Orrtanna; Howard Myers, Gettysburg R. 5, and Harry Musselman, Fairfield; Hereford, medium heavy class, Leonard Sites, Fairfield; Hereford, medium class, Dean Nace, Hanover R. 3; Melvin Nace, Hanover R. 3; Elmer Motter, Hanover R. 1, and James Motter, Littlestown R. 2; Hereford, light class, James Sneeringer, Gettysburg R. 5; John Claybaugh, Littlestown R. 2.

There were approximately 30 individuals in each weight class of both Hereford and Angus. Dean Nace placed fifth in the medium Hereford class. Champion of the show was awarded to a Lancaster county Aberdeen-Angus shown by Joseph Hess and reserve champion was a Hereford steer shown by a Lancaster 4-H club girl, Betty Jane Ginder. Each county entered three steers in a county trio show Wednesday.

Sell Lambs, Steers
Fitting and showing contests were held Thursday. A feature event of the program was the sale of lambs and steers in the sale pavilion. Champion steer, (Angus) sold at $155 per pound to Food Fair, Inc. Reserve champion (Hereford) sold at 75 cents a pound to Chester Packing company. Adams county steers sold from $37 to $40 per cwt.

Counties participating, besides Adams, were Berks, Chester, Cumberland, Dauphin, Lancaster, Lebanon, Mifflin, Northampton, Perry, Schuylkill and York. The show was sponsored by the Lancaster Livestock Exchange.

soldiers, and three were trainmen.

A railroad spokesman said the soldiers killed were among an army movement of about 100 officers and men riding on the first two coaches of the "Golden Triangle," which crashed into two freight trains. He added that the soldiers were en route from Fort Dix, N. J., to Chicago.

As railroad wrecking crews headed toward the scene from Crestline, Canton, Toledo and Cleveland, O., and Conway, Pa., this was the condition of the passenger train:

Two locomotives overturned; first coach resting on a freight car; second coach derailed and overturned; the next car, a combination baggage car and coach, derailed and leaning; a coach, diner and one sleeper derailed but upright; seven sleepers upright on the tracks.

Traffic was being rerouted over the Pennsylvania line through Columbus and over the Baltimore and Ohio through Willard, O.

Pvt. Chester Harp, 17, of Kenosha, Wis., who received back injuries, said that steam rushing into the first coach back of the engine was "a most terrible thing" and burned many of the 75 soldiers in the car. The soldiers were receiving 12-day furloughs before departing for Japan.

Two coaches of the passenger train carrying soldiers overturned and some of the passengers were trapped in the wreckage. Rescue crews with blow torches cut through twisted steel to reach the victims.

Terrible Havoc
"The seats were twisted and turned every which way," Sheriff Frank Robinson of Richland county said of the overturned coaches.

Physicians and nurses from surrounding communities climbed into the wrecked cars to administer aid to the injured.

The scene was one of terrible havoc, Sheriff Robinson reported. "The rails were badly twisted," he added; "cross ties were splintered and torn from the road bed."

Adoration Service At Fairfield Church

The Holy Name Society of St. Mary's church, Fairfield, will conduct an all-night "Adoration" service before Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, beginning Saturday evening and ending on Sunday morning at 8 o'clock.

"This action is in reverence to Almighty God, the Eucharistic King of the universe, and to plead His protection and guidance on our homes, our parish and our country," the Rev. Fr. Cletus A. Hauck, pastor of the church said.

The men have pledged themselves to take a designated hour throughout the entire night, and invite others of the parish to join with them at a convenient hour, Father Hauck added.

BOARD STUDIES PLANS FOR MORE HOSPITAL SPACE

Quarters for deep x-ray therapy equipment are provided for in plans now under study by the board of directors of the Warner hospital, Henry M. Scharf, board secretary, said today.

The lack of housing facilities for x-ray equipment, already purchased for the hospital by the local lodge of the Elks, was listed by a state Department of Health official here in a talk Wednesday evening before the county medical society as the only barrier to the establishment of a state cancer clinic in Gettysburg.

"Preliminary plans are now being studied to determine the best means of enlarging present hospital facilities here," Mr. Scharf said.

Would Cost $200,000
"Six studies already have been made on comparative costs of the several plans under consideration. Whatever course is decided upon, the cost is going to be close to $200,000."

"The board and its building committee have under consideration several proposals that would increase space for patients, give badly needed additional space for the surgery department and also provide the special accommodations needed for the deep x-ray equipment. One proposal is for a remodeling and enlarging of the present structure and another is for the construction of a new patient wing which would allow extra space in the present building for surgery and x-ray departments.

"The Musselman Annex which soon will be ready for occupancy will relieve overcrowded conditions in the maternity department but will not solve present needs for more bed space for patients and additional room for surgery and x-ray facilities," Mr. Scharf said.

"The problem of raising the necessary $200,000 faces the board along with its problem of deciding upon the best long-range plan for development of our community hospital," the secretary explained.

TO ADD 13 MEN AT POST OFFICE

Postmaster Lawrence Oylar announced today he will add 13 extra employees to the staff at the Gettysburg post office Monday to help handle the expected flood of Christmas mail.

He also announced that window service will be available extra hours on Saturdays before Christmas. The stamp and other lobby windows which close regularly at noon on Saturdays will be open until 4 o'clock this Saturday and until 6 p. m. on Saturday, December 21.

The extra help will continue until Christmas and possibly for a day or more afterward, depending upon the volume of mail to be handled, the postmaster said.

The special carriers are: Sefton R. Eisenhart, Allen E. Jennings, Frank W. Klos, Robert Parker, George R. Ridinger, Robert F. Saylor, Jr., Robert E. Thompson and Clayton D. Warman. The clerks are Paul A. Snyder, W. Mark Johns and Thomas A. Hamilton. Extra men to help on parcel post deliveries are Robert E. Berger and D. Ralph Blocher.

40th Anniversary Plans Are Laid

The Eagles committee appointed recently by President David McCullough to consider plans for the observance of the 40th anniversary of the Gettysburg aerie, met Thursday evening at the Eagles' home with officers of the aerie, John German was elected secretary of the committee.

It was decided that the celebration will be held during the early part of 1947, the 40th anniversary year, but only tentative arrangements were discussed Thursday night. The dates, unless it is necessary to make a change later, will be March 6, 7 and 8. A class initiation, dinner and other events are under consideration by the committee and the grand aerie will be asked to send representatives. Another meeting will be held Thursday evening, December 19, at 7:30 p. m.

PHOTOGRAPHERS HOSTS TO LADIES AT DINNER, SHOW

An animal scene photographed by Edward Stine was selected as the "print of the year" by a board of judges at the ladies' night meeting of the Gettysburg Photographic society Thursday evening at The Terrace. A print by Dr. Dunning Idle and a portrait by Paul G. Pensinger ranked second and third, respectively in the judging of the best prints of the year produced by members of the society.

Twenty-eight members and guests attended the meeting and dined on turkey before the business meeting and print displays.

Monthly Print Show

In the regular monthly judging a photo by Doctor Idle was given first place in voting by members and by guests. Guests gave a picture by Mr. Stine second place while members placed a print of Dr. Granville Schultz second. A Pensinger print got third place from the guests while members voted a photograph by Dr. C. A. Sloat third position. Guests voted entries of Doctor Schultz, Doctor Idle and Maurice Stoops other positions among the best six while members chose photos by Mr. Stoops, Mr. Stine and Doctor Idle similar positions. Paul A. Kinsey discussed the entries in the monthly show.

A traveling print show of the Photographic Society of America was displayed. A committee including Mr. Pensinger, Doctor Sloat and Mr. Stine was named to draw up a constitution and by-laws.

The next meeting will be held January 16 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pensinger on West Middle street.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey, Miss Ruth Melhenny, Miss Virginia Kendlehart, Robert E. Berkeimer, and Mrs. Philip Hughes.

The speaker will be the Rev. Earl Redding, pastor of the Third Evangelical United Brethren church, York. He will also lead the singing. Special music will be included on the program.

The other rally will be held in Zion Lutheran church, Fairfield, with the Rev. Dr. Clyde W. Meadows, pastor of the King Street United Brethren church, Chambersburg.

The Rev. Howard McCarney will preside and devotions will be led by the Rev. George Stoneback, pastor of the Fairfield Mennonite church. The song service will be in charge of Prof. Dale Roth, York Springs.

BULLETINS

New York, Dec. 13 (AP)—The United Nations sped toward final action on the principles of a world-wide arms reduction program today when the general assembly's powerful political committee approved unanimously a draft resolution laying down the general terms of the arms plan.

The 54-nation committee, meeting at Lake Success, sent the measure to the assembly for final action after making a few minor changes. In view of the unanimous vote, it was assured of adoption by the assembly.

Lake Success, N. Y., Dec. 15 (AP)—The United Nations Headquarters committee, having decided to accept John D. Rockefeller, Jr.'s proffered gift of an $8,500,000 piece of Manhattan real estate, will meet this afternoon to empower Secretary- (Please Turn to Page 7)

Adams county's school directors, meeting Thursday at St. James Lutheran church for their 56th annual convention, resolved to:

Recommend that all districts paying teachers no more than the minimum salary immediately consider payment of a "cost of living" bonus to their teachers for the current school year.

Recommend that all districts in Adams county which have not yet adopted a plan of sick leave for their teachers reconsider the plan worked out by the county board.

Recommend that each school district consider continuing next year the nursing program which has just been started in all school districts.

Back County Library
The directors, in the 13 resolutions adopted near the end of the session also went on record as urging school directors to give "moral and financial support to the splendid county library which is serving our schools every month."

They also determined to make an effort to record and preserve the history of the schools of the county. Pointing out that "the little red school house that we knew and loved is rapidly disappearing from the scene and soon will be no more than a memory," the directors extended an invitation to the Adams County Historical society to set up a joint committee of school directors and historians to draw up plans for obtaining and preserving the records of the schools of the county.

Another resolution urged that the uniform school calendar, set up by the county board, be observed by each district.

Elect Officers
The county directors also urged that each township not now having a principal-teacher consider the possibility of designating a person to serve in that capacity, either in their own district or jointly with another district.

Curtis S. Sponseller, New Oxford, was elected auditor for the directors' association and H. H. Beamer, Strasburg township, and R. L. Pittenturf, York Springs, were named as delegates to the state directors' convention. (Please Turn to Page 7)

Annul Marriage Of GI And Savage

Days, Kas., Dec. 13 (AP)—The strange marriage of an American soldier to a girl member of a savage Igorot tribe in the Philippine islands was annulled yesterday after the veteran testified he wed under threat of death.

Virgil C. Lehnus testified in District Court the marriage was performed in November of 1942 after he had escaped the Japanese but then had been captured by the Igorots.

He became ill and was nursed by an Igorot girl chosen by the tribe's chief. He said that after regaining his health he learned tribal law required that he and the girl be married. At first, he said, he refused but finally complied under threat of death.

Lehnus escaped shortly after the wedding, but was recaptured by the Japanese and held prisoner until the war ended.

Colors of the commercial sponge, when alive, range from yellowish gray to coal black.

REECE WARNS OF GOP TRIALS

Harrisburg, Dec. 13 (AP)—Chairman Carroll Reece, of the Republican national committee, says the GOP with a majority in Congress at the next session may not have sufficient authority to discharge its responsibilities because of Democratic control of the other two branches of the federal government.

"A Democrat President will remain in office until after the election in 1948," Reece said last night in an address to the allied divisions of the Republican state committee. "Likewise, we will not have anything like fair representation in the judicial branch of the government."

Reece added that "it has been the tradition of our federal judiciary that its members, disregard political affiliations in the discharge of their official functions. We are, of course, hopeful that tradition will be followed."

Governor-elect James H. Duff said in another address that "the time has come for all of us to drop the foreign extraction ideas and treat ourselves as all Americans."

Duff said that the November election was not a victory for the Republican party "but a victory for the American people" and cautioned against laxity during the next few years, adding: "We must all have a feeling of tremendous responsibility in the crisis ahead that faces all of us."

SERVE 2,500 AT MOOSE DINNER

Over 2,500 Moose and their ladies attended the annual turkey dinner held by the local lodge of Moose Wednesday evening at the lodge home on York street.

Eighty turkeys were used in feeding the group which began its dinner hour at 5:30 o'clock and ended about 9:45 o'clock Wednesday evening. Five tables, extending the length of the ballroom floor at the Moose home and designed to seat 400 at a time, were filled six times and then two of the tables were used for the last group.

The lodge's new shuffleboard placed in the former lounge on the second floor, was used for the first time with Merle Baumgardner, governor of the lodge, explaining plans of the club to make the former dining room on the second floor into a recreation room for members with the installation of a number of games, such as the shuffleboard, for the free use of members.

After the dinner a dance was held with Al Shirey's orchestra, of York, furnishing the music.

Hope Waners For 32 On Lost Plane

Seattle, Dec. 13 (AP)—Hope waned today for the safety of 32 Marines aboard a transport plane missing for three days as the worst storm conditions in a decade stymied searching parties climbing Mount Ranier.

The plane disappeared while en route here from San Diego, Calif.

Official sources were silent but searchers, based on Mount Ranier, expressed fears there can be no survivors of the missing plane.

New Jersey has outlawed the wearing of dangerous hats in public places.

Upper Communities

The Upper County Lions club will entertain the members of the Biglerville high school football squad, the coaching staff and other school officials at a dinner Tuesday evening at the high school building.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shillito had as guests recently at their home in Biglerville their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Myers, and son, Darryl, and daughter, Kitty Lou, and Miss Lois Book, all of Shippensburg.

Charles Milne has purchased a store in Biglerville from Mrs. Cecil Snyder. He took possession Thursday. Mr. Milne was formerly a salesman with M. Wahl and Son, Baltimore.

Mrs. Fred Baltzley entertained the members of the Arendtsville Bridge club Tuesday evening at her home in Arendtsville. High scores were held by Mrs. Charles Bushey and Mrs. Herbert E. Bryan.

Chester J. Tyson, Jr., of Haddonfield, New Jersey, returned home today after spending several days with his mother, Mrs. Chester J. Tyson, Gardners R. D.

Mrs. Joseph S. Boyer and Mrs. J. D. Miller, of Biglerville, were visitors to Harrisburg a day this week.

"The Poor Fish," a comedy which was presented by the Biglerville high school students Wednesday evening before an appreciative audience, will be repeated this evening at 8 o'clock. The play is under the direction of Miss Mary Bashore and Miss Louise Singley of the faculty.

Paraguay Nips 'Anarchist' Move

Asuncion, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Paraguayan government announced today the suppression of what it described as an attempt by "groups of anarchist elements" to seize control of police headquarters, a military school and the national prison.

A demonstration organized by students to support the army's recent call on political parties in Paraguay's government to cease their quarreling was broken up by gunfire here last night.

Some persons were wounded. A communique said it was not possible to identify the persons responsible nor the motives for the trouble, but that the injured were the victims of knives or revolvers, rather than police guns. All the nation was declared quiet today.

PARLOR PIGS

Auburn, Wash., (AP)—E. G. Schwiager believes there's a time and place for letting pigs in the parlor. Flood waters inundated his farm and marooned him. Many of his 400 pigs were drowned or lost. But when rescue parties arrived Schwiager declined their offer to evacuate him, saying he had to take care of his pigs.

He had managed to drive some of them into the house where he gave them the run of the living room.

San Francisco, Dec. 13 (AP)—The American Farm Bureau Federation, speaking for more than 1,000,000 agriculturists, was pledged today to support sharp revision of labor laws, including abolition of the closed shop.

Names on the distinguished honor roll are: Grade seven, Shirley Meckley; grade nine, Robert Aldridge, Eugene Jones, and Janet Miller; grade 10, Florence Clark; grade 11, Wilbur Hildebrand and Eugene Mechtly; grade 12, Miriam Klinefelter, Ivan Mechtly, Alice Jane Stock, and John Wolford.

The assembly was conducted by the members of the junior class. The devotions were given by a choral group reading St. Luke 2:1-20. Three original compositions were read; a poem, "Christmas Star," written by Gloria Horn, was read by Peg Alwine; an article, "Christmas Everywhere," written by Dan Anderson, was read by Eugene Mechtly; and a poem, "The Christmas Present," written by Emma Hippensteel, was read by Norman Haar. The junior class chorus sang, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" and George Smeltz sang "A White Christmas." The entire assembly joined in singing a number of familiar carols.

Offers Eyes To Blind Soldier

Phoenixville, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Nationwide attention attracted by a blind army corporal's plea for Santa Claus to bring him "two bright, shiny blue eyes" left him "completely flabbergasted" today.

Corporal Chester R. Perkins became the center of attraction at Valley Forge army hospital after publication of the Santa Claus letter sent his hometown newspaper, the Indianapolis News which copyrighted it.

"If God chooses," wrote the GI whose sight was destroyed by a land mine in Germany, "let me find beneath my Christmas tree two bright, shiny blue eyes—so that the memory of the last Christmas I saw may be blotted forever from my mind."

Immediately an unidentified Philadelphia woman offered to donate her sight. But hospital authorities say Perkins is hopelessly blind. His right eye has been removed and damage to the left probably is a retinal detachment and secondary cataract.

Assorted Stocks
Stage Recovery

New York, Dec. 13 (AP)—Utilities and assorted industrials shifted to the recovery side of today's stock market although many leaders continued to suffer from light selling. Hopes for a year-end rally, in addition to pleasing dividends and learning prospects, received the principal credit for timid bidding. Numerous customers, however, held aloof pending possible wage controversies in the steel and automotive fields. Tax adjustments still were handicaps.

Prices stiffened here and there after an irregular start and a subsequent dip. Dealings were relatively slow throughout and the direction a bit hazy near the fourth hour.

LARGE STAKES FOR GRIDDERS

New York, Dec. 13 (AP)—The Chicago Bears and the New York Giants have reason to believe Santa Claus will hit town early.

The windy city whizbangs and stout Steve Owens' touchdowns probably will be pitching at the fanciest pot o' gold in all pro football history when they play for the National League championship Sunday.

Tickets are still going like the melted butter at a clam bake. League commissioner Bert Bell's office figure if sales continue at the present rate there'll be 50,000 fans on hand and $185,000 in the pot when the stew comes to a boil at the Polo grounds.

Top previous gate was the $164,542.40 chipped in by well-iced fans in Cleveland last year.

Despite the large pile of cabbage in sight this year it is doubtful if individual players will get as much as those in last year's playoff. Last year the Cleveland Rams took home $1,469 each, while individual Washington Redskins collected $902 for losing.

This time the best guess is that the Giants will collect about $1,340 each if they finish on top, and that if the bears win the "take" will be $1,315 per Bear.

Map Plans For Bullets

Above are shown Capt. Ray Clapperton, forward, and Coach Mike Snider, consulting on the offensive tactics Juniata college will use against the Gettysburg college cagers when the teams clash at Huntingdon Saturday night.

Pairing off with Clapperton at forward will be Grote, another letterman from last year. Miller, a newcomer, will be at center, while Eisenhart, a holdover from the 1943 squad, and Norris, former Huntingdon high star, will be at the guard positions.

Victorious in their opener here Wednesday night with Lebanon Valley, the Bullets will be seeking their second straight win at the expense of the Indians.

LINES FORMING FOR CONGRESS FIGHT ON SUGAR

By OVID A. MARTIN
(Associated Press Farm Reporter)

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—Lines are being drawn for a fight in Congress over the sugar shortage.

The issue will center on the Truman administration's policy of sharing sugar produced in the Caribbean area with Europe and Canada. This policy was started early in the war in order to assure this country's fighting Allies of essential supplies.

Now that the war is over and world sugar production is increasing from the low levels to which it dropped during the conflict, there are many who contend this sharing should be abandoned.

Want More Sugar

Lining up on one side are many industrial users, such as candy-makers, bakers, soft drink bottlers, and food processors. Like individual consumers, they are being rationed. They are allowed only 60 per cent of the quantity they used in 1941.

These users want more sugar. They have a potential market for more of their products than they can make with their limited sugar supplies.

They say they could provide more jobs if they had more sugar.

Siding with these users are many individual consumers who have grown tired of being limited to ration levels averaging 25 pounds a person a year.

Warn Against 'Hoggish Role'

The total per capita supply available this year was about 73 pounds, including that rationed directly to consumers and that granted industrial users. This compares with a per capita average of 100 pounds before the war.

A delegation of industrial users and distributors told Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson recently that at least enough sugar should be made available to the United States in 1947 to re-establish per capita consumption to the pre-war level.

Government sugar experts say this is impossible if the United States is to live up to its international obligations and is not to play a "hoggish role."

They contend that world production of sugar, while increasing, is not enough to allow all countries to raise consumption to pre-war levels.

See Retaliation

This year, under the sharing program, the United States was allocated 20 per cent of the world production, or about the same percentage of the world output it consumed before the war. Other countries similarly were allocated shares in line with their pre-war percentage of consumption.

Officials say that if the United States undertook to raise per capita consumption in 1947 to pre-war levels, it would take over 25 per cent of the world supply. This, they add, would force much of the rest of the world to get along with 15 to 18 per cent less than those countries got this year.

Such action, officials maintain, would hurt the United States tremendously in the opinion of the rest of the world. They add that it might bring retaliation by other countries in the sharing of tin, fats and other

A'S TO LEAVE LOOP CELLAR

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—The word was out today that the Philadelphia Athletics are going to join their national league cousins, the Phillies, in vacating their role of league doorman "no matter what it costs."

Arthur Ehlers, newly-named manager of the Athletics' farm system, said 83-year-old Connie Mack, who has piloted the A's since 1901, wants to build another winning ball club, "that he wants a strong organization with no thought of the cost."

Mack, who is vacationing in California, has often been criticized for failing to spend large sums of money to purchase players and his club and for selling his spotlight stars. Ehlers said Mack feels he has the nucleus of a strong club, particularly in pitching and in the outfield and that the veteran manager is anxious to build up his farm system.

"The A's are eight to ten years behind the other clubs in the majors," Ehlers declared, but added that "I feel sure that we can produce something worthwhile in the next few years."

"Money will be no object" in rebuilding the club, Ehlers said, explaining that he hopes to purchase at least seven new farm clubs to give the A's the material to climb from the American league cellar.

Maroons Host To York Hi Tonight

Victorious in their opening games Tuesday night, the Gettysburg and York high cagers will each seek their second victory of the season tonight when the teams clash on the local high school floor.

York, winners over Coatesville, is reported to be represented by one of its best teams in a long time despite having but one letterman remaining from last year.

Coach Forney's Maroons showed promise in downing St. Francis and should give the White Roses a battle all the way. At 7 o'clock the jayvee teams of the schools will clash. Like the varsities, each opened with victories on Tuesday.

St. Louis Alone In Hockey Cellar

(By The Associated Press)

The St. Louis Flyers were all alone in the cellar of the American Hockey League's Western Division today and without a coach. Ralph Taylor who was released was the Flyers' mentor yesterday following a meeting of officials of the club which has lost seven, won 13 and tied seven.

Shortly after it was announced that Taylor was out, the Flyers' parent club, the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National League, disclosed Toronto assistant Bob Davidson was being sent to St. Louis as the new pilot. He will join the club next Tuesday.

Davidson, 34, played 12 years with Toronto, hanging up his skates at the conclusion of last season's campaign. He collected 94 goals and 160 field speedster who followed Coach Hugh Devore from Notre Dame.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Dec. 13 (AP)—They used to call them the monsters of the midway, but from the looks of things the Chicago Bears will be trying to run around the New York Giants in the National Football league playoff Sunday instead of pounding their way through the way monsters are supposed to do. . . . The Giants' line and backers-up have been very stubborn this season, as the Bears discovered the last time they were here, but a few of the league's speedboys have discovered they can outrun the secondary and catch passes. . . . So Chicago's strategy apparently will be to have Sid Luckman pitch to George McAfee, who has only played three games but has scored on three of the ten passes he has caught. . . . Luckman, incidentally, should be better this time. On his last visit he spent considerable time looking after long-neglected business affairs and the pavement pounding didn't help him evade the charging Giants.

SHOT IN THE DARK

The other day George Harvey, hunting and fishing expert of the Penn State college faculty, was moaning because, for the second time in 16 years of deer hunting, he had needed two shots to bring down his buck. . . . Track Coach Chick Werner, who does most of his shooting with a starter's pistol, listened without too much sympathy. A few days before he had been quail hunting in Illinois and had brought down two birds with one shot.

'LITTLE GIANTS' IN BOWL FIGHT

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 13 (AP)—Muhlenberg and St. Bonaventure will stage a "battle of the Little Giants" tomorrow in football's inaugural Tobacco Bowl.

The schools, which tossed out some conflicting claims to sectional honors before being matched for the Tobacco Bowl premiere, accepted the Lexington bid with a growing "it's a pleasure to meet you."

Also spicing the encounter is the presence of six players from Allentown, Pa., home of Muhlenberg, on the St. Bonaventure's Alleghany, N. Y. squad.

Beyond the assurance of an old fashioned dogfight, nothing about the game was safe to predict—not even the crowd. The 22,000 seating capacity of the University of Kentucky stadium was far from a sell-out and the sponsors banked heavily on clear skies and moderate temperatures to fill some of the seats.

A feature drawing card of the game will be the presence of little all-America performers on each team. Coach Floyd Schwartzwalder's Mules boast an outstanding choice in George Bibighaus, an end, and the Bonnies have Phil Colella, back-

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Pick Officers for Hospital's New Auxiliary: Miss Mary Ramer was elected president of the reorganized Adams county women's auxiliary of the Annie Warner hospital which met at the Strand theatre Thursday night. Seventy-five women from all parts of Adams county attended the meeting.

The other officers elected were: Mrs. J. M. Barnitz, New Oxford, first vice president; Mrs. S. G. Bigham, Biglerville, second vice president; Mrs. Eliza Myers, York Springs, third vice president; Mrs. Robert P. Marsh, Gettysburg, secretary, and Miss Margaret Myers, Gettysburg, treasurer.

Sisters of Mercy Observe 100th Anniversary Here: One hundred years ago Saturday, December 12, the Sisters of Mercy, a branch of which is in charge of St. Francis Xavier's parochial school here, was founded by Catherine Elizabeth McAuley.

The Sisters of Mercy have been in charge of the school work in Gettysburg for eleven years having succeeded the Sisters of Charity, whose motherhouse is located at Emmitsburg.

Miss Marion Hare and Carl Carey Wed: Miss Marion A. Hare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hare, Gettysburg route 5, and Carl A. Carey, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Carey, Orttanna, were married at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening by the Rev. Earl J. Bowman at the parsonage of St. James Lutheran church. Mr. and Mrs. Carey will reside at Iron Springs.

James B. Aumen Becomes Chief Emeritus Here: James B. Aumen, for ten years chief of the Gettysburg fire company, was unanimously elected chief emeritus of the company at the regular December meeting Wednesday night.

William G. Weaver, first assistant chief for many years, was elected fire chief to succeed Mr. Aumen. Other officers elected included the following:

President, James Howe; vice president, C. Lloyd Palmer; secretary, G. A. McClelland; financial secretary, George D. March; treasurer, Joseph E. Codori; chaplain, M. A. Miller; first assistant fire chief, H. E. Smiley; second assistant fire chief, Charles J. Myers; fire marshal, C. E. Woodward; representative to the state association, Glenn L. Bream; representative to the Southeastern association, Leo A. Culp.

Garner Elected as Speaker of House: Washington, Dec. 7 (AP)—The new 72nd Congress convened today tensed with pent-up political dissension, but sobered by the magnitude of the political task ahead.

The House was the major attraction. There a newly-elected majority elected John Nance Garner, of Texas, as speaker, over the Republican, Bertrand Snell, of New York.

Kills Doe: C. Ray Rupp, Gelnwehr avenue, has returned from Potter county, where he shot a doe.

73 Persons at Annual Party: Seventy-three persons, including members and children, attended the annual Mothers' club Christmas party at the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday afternoon.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. R. S. Saby, Mrs. G. R. Larkin, Mrs. Ernest Ziegler, Mrs. Robert Elden, Mrs. Stewart W. Frost and Mrs. Chester J. Tyson.

2 Americans Awarded Prize: New York, Dec. 10 (AP)—The Nobel peace prize for 1931 was awarded Wednesday to Jane Addams, Chicago social worker, and Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia university, the consul-general of Norway announced Wednesday.

Announcement: (Ad.) William F. Weaver, after 33 years with Blocher's, announces that he has equipped and opened a complete Jewelry Repair Shop at his home at 63 West Middle street and is now prepared to handle repair work on Watches, Clocks and every kind of Jewelry promptly and satisfactorily.

Crowded House Greets Comedy Presented by Business Girls: Local talent gave a pleasing presentation of the musical comedy "Rainbow of the Rio Grande" before the largest crowd to witness a home talent production here in many years at the Majestic theatre, Tuesday evening.

The Business and Professional Girls club of the Y. W. C. A., under whose auspices the show was given, announced that their share of the receipts was $113. The money will be given to the Y. W. C. A.

Personal Mention: John D. Keith, Carlisle street, was among the guests at the Gridiron club dinner at the Willard hotel, Washington, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Caroline Weigle, York street, landed in New York Monday after a visit of six months at her former home in Norway.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Weaver and Mrs. R. C. Miller, Baltimore street, were in New York city, where on Saturday they attended the Army and Navy football game.

William Van Cleve, of Kansas City, Missouri, is visiting Miss Carrie and Elizabeth Van Cleve, Lincoln avenue.

SANTA and the BOY KING

BY LUCRECE HUDGINS

Chapter 7

The Witch Makes A Potion

"What kind of a ring are you talking about?" Asked the Witch of Zanzell when James begged her to remove it.

Quickly the boy explained how the ring had turned him into a bird and how he could never again be King of Mervania if the sun set five more times while the ring was on his finger.

It was difficult talking to the witch because all he could see were the two blue lights of her eyes. Suddenly he felt a bunch of dry bones taking his hand and he realized with horror that the bones were the hands of the Witch.

The two blue lights bent close to his finger and the rusty voice spoke. "It's a very pretty ring and you make a very pretty girl. Why not stay that way?"

"Oh, no!" cried James, and he tried to tell her how he had always hated being king because his ministers ruled him but that now he had to get back because he had found that his ministers were wicked and he must punish them and be a real king now.

"All that means nothing to me," grumbled the witch indifferently. "Just a lot of talk-talk."

"But—you will take it off?"

"I will."

The blue lights moved away and a great clattering of pots and pans began. Suddenly there was a tiny flame in the cave and for the first time James was able to see about him. The witch was, indeed, a pile of bones, covered with skin. But the blue lights of her eyes faded as the fire she had kindled grew brighter.

The ancient creature laid a great iron cauldron on the fire and dumped into it certain things she found on her shelves. What things! Fish eyes and star dust. Apple cores and shredded rainbow. Rabbit's fur and spring rain. Snakes' scales and pressed forsythia.

Then she stirred and stirred and the fire grew hotter and the mixture bubbled and the steam filled the tiny cave till the sweat ran down the boy's face and his knees grew weak. His stomach tightened and he was sick with the thought of drinking this magic potion which would disenchant him.

"I will do it," he told himself harshly. "I will. I will." And he closed his eyes and clenched his fists and repeated it over and over like some mystic formula of his own. "I will. I will."

At last the stirring and mumbled stopped and the witch presented James with a bowl of thick black liquid. He took it resolutely in his hands. "Must—must I drink all of it?" he faltered.

"Demon's fire!" shrieked the witch who was quite worn out with her labors. "You don't drink it! You soak your hand in it and the ring will slide off."

James' face lit with relief. He sat down and prepared to dip his hand in the liquid. "No! No!" cried the witch. "You must go up and do it by the light of the setting sun. Be quick now. And careful. I used all of my spring-rain in it and there won't be more until March."

THE FIRE GREW HOTTER AND THE MIXTURE BUBBLED.

So James thanked her as best he could and returned to his little chair in the well shaft. Slowly the chair moved to the face of the earth. The sun was resting on top of the western mountains when James climbed out of the well.

"How good the witch is!" he thought happily as he placed the precious bowl on a rock and rolled back the sleeves of his red polka-dot dress. "And how shall I ever thank Santa!"

But when he leaned down to dip his hand in the magic potion it had moved away!

Potion, bowl, and rock were traveling lickety-split across the field, and, as the boy stared in horror, the bowl slid off and dumped the precious liquid into the thirsty ground.

(To be continued)

Things Of The Soil

Production of chicks by commercial hatcheries continues to drop well below figures for 1945. Numbers for 1946 will likely be the lowest since 1941. For the first 10 months of this year production was 26 percent below the record high for a corresponding period in 1943.

Recent school surveys indicate that 43 percent of men in cities have finished at least one year of high school, compared with 21 percent of men in rural areas. Among city women 45 percent have finished at least one year of high school, while only 20 percent of rural women have done so.

One of the many scientific gains from World War II is the development of low-cost soil fumigants to destroy nematodes. At least three materials are now available to farmers and gardeners for this important work—D-D, a by-product of petroleum; Dofume G; and Dowfume W10. Recent two newer preparations have been added to the list, Isobromene 1 and Isobromene D. D-D is proving effective against the European golden nematode of potatoes in the only outbreak known in this country, a localized Long Island infestation.

An accident to the foundation of a Kentucky farmer's farrowing house has become a new means of saving pigs from injury. The foundation sagged suddenly and gave the farrowing house floor a rather noticeable slant. The farmer observed that the pigs sought the lower portion of the floor while the sow always selected the higher edge for lying down. The advantage was more than any hog raiser would suppose. Tests now show that an average of two pigs more are saved from a litter by this provision—two fewer pigs per litter killed by the mother lying on them. Truly, this is a new slant on pig raising.

"Soil mining," the taking out of more soil nutrients by cropping than are returned by proper methods, is destroying about 500,000 acres of land each year in the United States. Of the 460 million acres of cropland now available in this country, 390 million acres are subject to erosion if not adequately protected. When these two facts are added together, it is found that the farmer's responsibility mounts with every passing year.

Late blight took a toll of approximately $40,000,000 to $50,000,000 from the nation's tomato crop in 1946. The chief area of attack extended from Florida northward along the Atlantic coast to New England and westward as far as Indiana. This statement alone may mean little

Freak Accident Is Fatal To Two Miners

Somerset, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—A freak mine accident claimed the life of a second victim Wednesday when Ralph Philippi, 42, of Stoytown, died in Somerset Community hospital.

His buddy, Henry Suder, 67, of Myersdale, died only a short time after the accident on Monday at the Pittsburgh-Consolidation Coal company mine at Acosta.

Dr. A. M. Uphouse, Somerset county coroner, said the men were riding on a motor car in the mine when the trolley jumped the wire and struck them. Suder's chest was crushed and one lung punctured; Philippi also was injured internally.

BOY SAYS MAN TOLD OF MURDER

Indiana, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—A 16-year-old boy told a jury trying Pete Prenni, 26, coal stripper, for murder in the death of a 72-year-old woman, that he heard the miner admit he killed the woman at her home August 31.

The boy, Eugene Kelly, took the stand Wednesday to testify he walked home from nearby Nowyretown with Prenni and that when they passed the home of Mary Vranko, the victim, Prenni said he was going inside for immoral purposes. Kelly said he waited and when the miner came out he told the boy: "She said she was too old. I killed the woman. I never liked her."

In answer to a question by the defense attorney, young Kelly denied he had ever told anyone of killing a woman by "beating her brains out." Mrs. Vranko's head was crushed by a club.

The tall, mustachioed Prenni listened calmly as the youth testified. His wife and parents sat by his side but his three children were not in court.

ACTIVITIES OF ANTI-REDS IN POLAND MOUNT

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)

Something very like the wartime French underground campaign against the Germans is going on now in Moscow-dominated Poland.

Although the government controls the country's resources and major arms supplies, widespread guerrilla warfare, heavy casualties, the number of troops involved and overflowing jails indicate a movement of sufficient size to suggest the possibility of civil war.

The government itself estimates it holds 10,000 political prisoners. Heightened pre-election activity by security police and military courts increases the number daily.

Attacks Increasing

Underground bands are increasing their attacks on villages, state institutions and government officials. The bands apparently consist largely of members of the old underground army which fought the Germans. The government claims they are supported from outside by the Poles who joined the allied forces in Europe. The necessary secrecy surrounding the guerrilla bands also seems to have attracted anti-semitic and purely brigand forces.

The underground is reported to have killed 15,000 politicians, security police, Russians and plain civilians since the Communist government came to power. The militia alone admits loss of 2,000 killed and 4,000 wounded in fights with the guerrillas, of whom they claim to have killed 2,000. The government has had to use regular army divisions at times to maintain even a semblance of control in some areas.

Civil War Threat

Refugee Poles have predicted that if free elections were held the government would lose, and that if elections are not free there will be a civil war.

Just what chance the opposition might have of forcing a change in the government is problematical.

What the opposition is sure of is that, under the present system of armed government police-watches, raids on Polish peasant party headquarters, arrests of its leaders and interference with its press, the election in January will not be free. And the government, should a completely frustrated opposition resort to civil war, would have behind it the strength of Soviet Russia.

INVENTORS DO BEST AFTER 40

Pittsburgh, Dec. 13 (AP)—It may be a young man's world but inventors do their best work around 40 and thereafter, declares Thomas Spooner, head of the engineering laboratories and standards department of Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Spooner's study of 150 scientists' inventive output over a 20-year period shows a sudden upward spurt in patients as research scientists and engineers reach 40, attaining a peak well above achievement at any other age bracket.

More than half of 100 outstanding inventions by Americans were contributed by men past 36, while 35 per cent of the total were made by inventors past 40, Spooner said.

"While sudden flashes of inventive genius may and often do occur among very young scientists," said Spooner, "their most important and numerous contributions are made after they pass 30 and continue a steady climb until they reach a peak at the age of 43."

"The reason for this," Spooner explained, "is that the experience and knowledge of older men is much more productive of important inventions than the inspirational flash of youth. There is no age limit to genius, especially for those men who live in a scientific or technical atmosphere."

SHORT HOLIDAY

Harrisburg, Dec. 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania state employees will have only a day and a half off for the Christmas holiday, George I. Bloom, secretary to Governor Martin, notified department heads today that state offices will be closed from noon Tuesday, December 24, until Thursday, December 26.

NOT GUILTY IN TRAILER DEATH

Belleville, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—John E. Galloway, 23-year-old Pennsylvania State college student, stood acquitted today of a charge of murder in the pistol slaying of his young bride at their campus trailer home.

After deliberating four hours, a jury of 10 men and two women returned the verdict late yesterday.

Galloway stood up slowly to hear the verdict and sank limply back into his seat as the foreman pronounced the words.

The verdict was greeted with a burst of applause from the jammed courtroom, while Mrs. A. E. Galloway of Harrisburg, the youth's mother, wept.

The two women members of the jury, both housewives, kissed him on the cheek and left the courtroom, dabbing their eyes.

Thus ended the dramatic four-day trial which cleared the young veteran of World War II of the murder charge imposed after his bride, Mrs. Catherine Diamond Galloway, 20, was killed by a bullet from his gun in their trailer last October 26. The defense claimed the shooting was accidental.

south side of Broadway and will front on that street. It will be located at the rear of the present infirmary which fronts on Lincoln avenue.

All of the proposed buildings except the infirmary will be of modern colonial design of brick and stone to conform to the design of adjacent buildings. The chapel and girls' gymnasium will be one floor, while the dormitory will be three floors. The infirmary will be one floor, planned so that all rooms receive a maximum of sunlight. Pictures and floor plans of the proposed buildings have been published in the brochure, "A Greater Gettysburg."

To Be Launched At Dinner

The appeal for funds will be directed among the alumni, the Lutheran churches in central Pennsylvania and Maryland synods, citizens of Gettysburg and Adams county and a generally selected list of friends of Christian education.

Official opening of the fund campaign will be marked by an alumni rally dinner which will be held simultaneously in each section of the alumni organization throughout the world. The exact time and date will be announced later.

Several distinct portions of the four proposed buildings and fixtures within them have been designated as memorials or gifts.

PLANS FOR END OF UNRRA MAY BRING ON FIGHT

By ROGER D. GREENE

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—An American-Soviet dispute threatened today to precipitate a wide-open fight in the 48-nation UNRRA Council over the method of winding up aid to war-blighted nations.

At issue is more than $625,000,000 in unexpended UNRRA funds for relief shipments abroad.

Russia, through its chief delegate, Nikolai Feonov, has demanded that:

1. Existing contracts for UNRRA aid to needy countries be carried out to the letter, and
2. That UNRRA, officially scheduled to end December 31, continue until April, 1947.

Bitter Opposition

Both proposals encountered immediate, bitter opposition from the American delegate, C. Tyler Wood.

"The receiving countries must not be deprived of the promised relief only because some calendar date arrives," Feonov told the delegates at yesterday's stormy session.

"The question is, will UNRRA fulfill its programs or will it terminate its activities leaving the programs unfulfilled and the funds unused?"

Informal committee discussion showed a count of five to three speakers in favor of prolonging the council's life until next April, with Russia, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, and Norway ranged against the United States, the United Kingdom and Australia. Final decision was left for the full council's action, probably today.

REWARD

Bismarck, N. D., (AP)—Kenneth R. Yeiter, a bartender, walked into the Bismarck Tribune newsroom and slammed six 50-cent pieces on a desk.

The $3, he said, was a reward given to him by a Bismarck contractor for finding $18,000 worth of endorsed and negotiable checks owned by the contractor.

WILL ENLIST DISABLED MEN

The enlistment and assignment of partially disabled combat wounded veterans of World War II is now authorized, according to Lt. Col. J. C. Gault, commanding officer, Philadelphia Army Recruiting office.

Combat wounded veterans, who possess or are trained in certain critically needed skills and who meet standards for general military service with the exception of specific combat-incurred disability, may enlist.

Former enlisted men may enlist in the grade they held at time of discharge provided application for enlistment is submitted on or before January 31, 1947. Former officers may enlist in the first pay grade provided their application for enlistment is made on or before January 31, 1947.

Every effort will be made by the Army Classification Officers to study carefully every military occupational specialty applicable to each applicant and in view of qualifications and physical capabilities to select those specialties in which the applicant can reasonably be expected to perform adequately during the period of his enlistment.

Information concerning enlistments under this regulation is available at the Philadelphia Army Recruiting office at 13 and Market streets, Philadelphia.

B AND P WOMEN ABOVE MINIMUM

Doris Finkbner, Sara Jane Maust, Carolyn Rupp, Dorothy Staub, Spangler, Strickhouser, Troxell and Madlyn Null sang "The First Noel" and "Christmas Greetings" accompanied by Miss Esther Hartman.

A reading was given in costume by Mrs. John Wible. The reading was entitled "A Bride Goes Christmas Shopping." Miss Esther Tipton gave a humorous reading, "Corn—This Time Popcorn."

Featured on the program was a debate on the question, "Resolved—There Ain't No Santa Claus." Speakers for the affirmative side were Miss Maust and Mrs. Clyde Lenhart and for the negative side, Mrs. Wible and Mrs. Louise Sles. Miss Doris Redding presided as judge and left the decision to the group which concurred with the arguments of the affirmative side that "the old saint lives on."

Gift To President

Decorations for the tables included white pine, Christmas balls and red candles. On the speakers' table was a miniature church containing a music box which played Christmas carols. Place cards were in the form of individual favors of red and white striped paper tied to a spray of pine which the guests used as corsages.

Several pieces of sterling were presented to the organization's president, Miss Dorothy Andrew, by the club. Miss Jean Spangler made the presentation.

Committees in charge of the arrangements for the dinner were: Decorating, Miss Mary Bittinger, Miss Rupp, Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, Miss Null, Mrs. James Shenk, Mrs. C. William Zhea, Miss Ann Dear-dorff and Miss Mary Scott; place and ticket, Mrs. Mildred Benner, Miss Rosa Armor, Mrs. Mary Beales and Miss Tipton

Explosion Rocks Service Station

Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—A tremendous explosion rocked a gasoline station last night setting off a fire which turned a man into a flaming torch.
Drenched with flaming gasoline, even his hair afire, 24-year-old Emil Tagliari ran from the station but was thrown to the ground by two neighbors, whose prompt action was hailed by hospital attaches as probably saving Tagliari's life.
Tagliari was standing under his automobile, which was on a hydraulic lift, with David Silver, 27, the garage owner, when the blast occurred. Silver was burned about the body and both he and Tagliari were in critical condition today. The two who saved Tagliari—Alfred Canna, 38, and Clarence Reighn, 52—were burned on their hands.

DISTRICT THREE ELECTS
Hershey, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—James J. Meely, athletic director of Lancaster high school, was elected president of District 3, PIAA at a meeting here last night.
Other officers elected were Charles W. Eisenhart, Steelton, secretary, and Ralph I. Shockey, Chambersburg, treasurer.

COUPLE ASPHYXIATED
Boystown, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Mrs. Cora M. Weidner, 60, was asphyxiated and her husband, Leon, 58, overcome last night when coal gas filled their home. Mrs. Claude Kemp, deputy coroner, issued a certificate of accidental death. Leon Weidner is expected to recover.

GIVE UP HOPE FOR 16 BURIED IN FIRE RUINS

New York, Dec. 13 (AP)—Weary workers who dug the bodies of 20 persons from the wreckage of a collapsed tenement house in a slow, grim procession of death gave up hope today for the lives of 16 others believed buried under tons of rubble.
As the broken body of Rose Pucci, 15, was carefully extricated from the ruins, police said they planned to set three steam shovels to work on the ruins of the building in which more than 30 were injured. Workers had previously carefully dug by hand because they feared heavy machinery would cause more crashes.
The building at 2515 Amsterdam avenue in upper Manhattan, which housed 22 families, was smashed early yesterday by a two-foot thick wall of an adjoining ice-house which toppled on it after a five-alarm fire in the ice house.
In Ruins 24 Hours
Rescue workers toiled all night in the glare of huge searchlights which played over the six-story structure's gaunt remains. They had to abandon most of their heavy power machinery and resort to bare hands and small tools in an effort to avoid another collapse.
Shortly after 1 a.m. (EST) today—nearly 24 hours after the building toppled—the bodies of a mother and two children were removed from the debris. One child still clutched a gaily wrapped Christmas package.
They were identified as Mrs. Elizabeth Biancardi, 37, and Joyce, 12, and Lucille, 8. The body of another Biancardi daughter, Monica, 6, was removed from the rubble several hours later.
Hold Two Juveniles
Timothy P. Guineen, assistant fire chief in charge of the rescue operations, said shortly afterwards that he doubted there was anyone left alive in the wreckage.
The blaze which started at about 11 p.m. Wednesday night was the second in the ice plant in a few hours. The earlier one, occurring around 5 p.m., was put out swiftly by firemen.
Two boys, Joseph McCabe, 13, and Joseph Elio, 10, were arrested last night and held as juvenile delinquents on arson charges in connection with the earlier fire. Fire Marshal Thomas P. Brophy, in a report to Mayor William O'Dwyer, said the first fire was caused by "mischievous boys."

DOUBLE ROLE
Hollywood, Calif., (AP)—Within 24 hours, the stork made Mrs. Ethel Wadler, 37, both a mother and a grandmother.
Just 23½ hours before Mrs. Wadler's seven-pound daughter was born, another daughter, Mrs. Edith Hood, 18, became the mother-of-a-daughter, also weighing seven pounds.

RUN OVER BY TRAIN—LIVES
Philadelphia, Dec. 13 (AP)—With only head cuts to show for his experience, a 52-year-old man rested at St. Agnes hospital today after a subway ran over him as he lay between the rails. The victim, who gave his name as Sam Zeff, said he could not remember his address, his place of employment or how he got into the subway station, reported Detective Fred Deitch.

Use Smoke To Get Oil From Wells

Oil City, Pa., Dec. 13 (AP)—Smoke is being injected into oil wells on the lease of the Brundred Oil Corp. in an effort to increase production by the secondary recovery process.
The experiment is being made by Dr. Ralph Nielsen and Kenneth Smith of Pennsylvania State college, and Robert Bossler, petroleum engineer who is an official of the corporation.
The smoke is used to seal off loose sand so gas and air injected through an intake well can be forced into tight oil strata.

UMW PETITION BEFORE COURT

Washington, Dec. 13 (AP)—The question of whether the United Mine Workers should be held responsible for the acts of John L. Lewis confronted the Supreme Court today.
The point was raised in a UMW petition attacking the legality of the $3,500,000 fine assessed against the union by Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough, after he found the UMW guilty of contempt during the recent soft coal strike.
The petition, filed yesterday by union attorneys, raised again a number of the points which were presented unsuccessfully during the lower court hearing.
A government petition, similar to that filed by the union, has been granted by the court. Court action on the new petition for a writ of certiorari is expected next Monday and, if favorable, the two cases undoubtedly will be combined in the arguments set for January 14.
Lewis, president of the UMW, was personally fined $10,000 for contempt in addition to the fine imposed on the union. His action, terminating the union contract with the government, resulted in the general strike of the soft coal miners last November 20. Last Saturday Lewis ordered the miners to return to work.

BRITAIN'S TIFF WITH ALBANIA LIKE TITO ROW

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Great Britain's trouble with Albania over the mining of Corfu Channel, with resultant heavy damage to two British destroyers and the loss of 44 lives, is strangely of a pattern with the U. S.-Yugoslav row over the shooting down of American planes.
In each case Russian satellite governments have taken violent, almost hysterical action (if the British charge is true) in the guise of defending their sovereignty. Age-old principles involving the protection of peacetime travelers have been thrown out the window in inexplicable fashion.
If it is true that Albania deliberately and secretly mined a traditionally free channel, nobody will know what to expect next. If the mining was done for fear of what passing British ships might observe ashore, the implications would be a cause for even greater anxiety than the act itself.
In one respect the Albanian incident, aside from the greater loss of life, is of greater significance than the Tito affair, for Russian control in Albania is much more direct than in Yugoslavia.
In Yugoslavia there is a communist-dominated government, conducted by Moscow-trained operatives, but one which operates with a certain degree of autonomy. Tito, instead of being merely an executive of Moscow's orders, is more of a collaborator. He follows the line to which he is well-trained, to be sure, but up to the point where he might cross the Kremlin he is his own man. Although he had Russian precedent for getting tough with American planes which flew over prescribed areas, the trouble he got into with us was essentially his own.
In Albania, on the other hand, reliable reports have it that Russians actually occupy the key positions. After last year's so-called elections the United States and Britain withheld recognition of the government. The Russians, however, not only jumped aboard the Hoxha bandwagon, but apparently took over the reins. Russian Minister Dimitri Tchuvakin arrived last January with a staff of experts which one source counted at 400, and the number has been reported greatly augmented since. There have been additional reports of whole Russian army units and hundreds of officers forming the cadres of the new Albanian army, which is reported to total some 100,000 men out of a total population of 1,000,000.
